

10/12/16 – NaeRoc Productions

NaeRoc Productions is a Christian Theater Company that runs right out of Danbury. The group specializes in writing original Christian plays that they hope can teach people and provide a spiritual healing for those that come to watch.

The business was formed in Danbury in 2006 out of New Hope Baptist Church, where the president of NaeRoc Productions, Corean Strong, is the director of music and drama. Corean's motto is "minister first, perform second."

The group has taken stage off-Broadway and even won first place in the Agape Theater and Film Awards in Atlanta. While they have success across the coast, they don't shy from performing right here at home. You may have seen them at the Danbury Palace Theater.

A unique aspect of these shows is that the plays are written with a sense of humor. The goal is to spread a message, but in an engaging and exciting way. The most popular show is "All God's Children Got Shoes!" a play that uses different types of shoes to portray various issues, issues that families, communities and churches usually shy away from talking about.

It's wonderful to have so many opportunities for good times in Danbury. With NaeRoc Productions you can have a night of entertainment and enjoy a group dining experience before the show right downtown!

If you're interested in working in the troupe of actors or want to find out more about their original plays and upcoming performances, visit naerocproductions.com

